

BOGOTA – CITY OF ELDORADO

Highlights

- Gold Museum in Bogotá - on the path of El Dorado
- Paloquemao Market – Typical fruit market with local plants

Bogotá Citytour with market

Visit the traditional market Paloquemao, a huge market hall with more than 1800 stands offering anything from fresh fruits and vegetables, meat, herbs, flowers and handcrafts. Enjoy the colorful outdoor flower market and gaze at the numerous exotic fruits. Of course, you can also try and taste. Your guide will advise you about dos and don'ts.

During the walking tour of Bogotá, you will enjoy the contrast of the modern and historical part of the city. You will see the most important buildings from the colonial era in La Candelaria, the old town of Bogotá, as well as the government district around Plaza Bolívar with its Cathedral, Palace of Justice, Parliament and Town Hall. Visit Bogotá's famous museum of the artist Fernando Botero, with its outstanding collection of contemporaneous art. Experience how the unique emeralds were traded. The Gold Museum is a highlight, with its unique collection of pre-Columbian gold jewelry. If the weather is nice you will drive to Monserrate where you have a spectacular view of the big city.

Services included:
