

MEDELLÍN – CITY OF FLOWERS AND VISIT OF FOUNDATION CANGURO

Highlights

- Medellín - the so-called city of eternal spring

Day 1 Medellín

After your arrival to Medellín, you will have a guided tour of Medellín starts at Pueblito Paisa, from where you can enjoy a wonderful view over the city. The next destination is the historic center of Medellín. At the Parque Berrio you can listen to local musicians playing traditional Guasca music. Then visit the Plaza Botero, where you can see an exhibition of the Colombian artist Fernando Botero. The tour continues through the busy streets of the center of Medellín to the Parque Bolivar, one of the most beautiful places of the city. The tour continues with a cable car ride (Metrocable) into the neighborhood Santo Domingo, which was in Pablo Escobar's time notorious for gangs and violence. Immerse yourself in the exciting story of the transformation of Medellín, which was once one of the most dangerous cities in the world and has transformed into an exciting cultural place.

Hotel: Diez  or Florencia Plaza *****

Day 2 Medellín (B)

This excursion takes you into the heartland of Antioquia. First you visit the flower village Santa Elena. The small village is located less than an hour outside of Medellín in the mountains of Antioquia. It is home to a great variety of traditional flower farmers. The flower arrangements of the Flower Festival ("Feria de Flores"), called "silletas", have an impressive history and are today a cultural symbol of Medellín. On this tour you visit an organic flower farm and experience the traditional and pleasant culture of Santa Elena.

Subsequently you will drive to Lake Guatapé. You can climb up the Peñol rock, one of the most spectacular destinations in the surroundings of Medellín. To get on top of the 200m high rock you climb a whopping 740 steps. Gaze at the wonderful view of the blue lakes and green mountains the region offers. Afterwards enjoy a nice Colombian lunch on the shore of the Guatapé lake. Then explore the lake by boat and take time to relish the lovely village Guatapé. It is a small, silent spot with nicely warm climate especially known for its church and the beautiful colored wall paintings of the houses.
